HOPE FOR DEPRESSION RESEARCH FOUNDATION INAUGURAL LUNCHEON

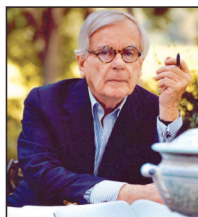

Audrey Gruss founded the Hope for Depression Research Foundation (HDRF) in honor of her mother, Hope, who battled clinical depression for decades. HDRF funds the most cutting-edge, international scientific research into depression and related disorders—anxiety, bipolar disorder, post-traumatic stress syndrome, post-partum depression and ADHD—with the ultimate goal of finding a cure. Every dollar raised goes directly to research.

Friday, March 28th at 12pm
The “Hope” Pavilion, Mar-a-Lago

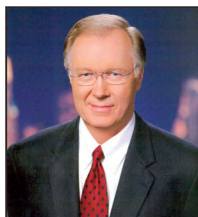

Featuring Special Guests:

Lorraine Bracco

Dominick Dunne
